As you look into the eyes of the children entrusted to you, do you wonder if you're making a difference? Some of those eyes sparkle with excitement. Some are filled with the troubles of this world. But each child hopes that you will bring joy into their life during your times together. The Seeds of Faith Children's Seminar will encourage and equip you to know that you are making a difference.

Who should attend?

- Sunday School workers
- Children's ministry leaders
- Sunday School superintendents
- Pastoral staff

During the Seeds of Faith Children's Seminar, you will discuss appropriate teaching techniques, discover ways to engage children with the Word of God on a level they will understand, and develop resources to make each lesson come alive.

As a participant in the Seeds of Faith Children's Seminar, you will receive a full day of instruction, renewal, and ministry help, a Children's Ministry seminar workbook, and the opportunity for fellowship with and encouragement from other children's ministry leaders and teachers.

SEEDS OF FAITH CHILDREN'S SEMINAR LEADERS

Andrea Chamberlain

was involved in the process of creating the new children's curriculum, Growing Faith, for Regular Baptist Press. She taught internationally as well as in the U.S. while earning her master's degree in early childhood education.
